GRADUATE STUDENTS REMEMBER MEGUMI YAMAMOTO FONDLY

ALBUQUERQUE- The Graduate and Professional Students Association (GPSA) wish to offer our condolences to the family and friends of Megumi Yamamoto.

“Megumi’s passage is a loss to the entire graduate student community at UNM,” said GPSA President Lissa Knudsen. “Our organization is here to support all of our members, especially International students as well as those in the Physics and Astronomy Department, as they go through this difficult time.”

Counseling Services are available through the UNM Student Health and Counseling Center located in Student Health and Counseling Center.
